THE CANDIDATES

For Congress From Fourth District

Engage In Two Joint Debates in Meade County.

Brandenburg, Ky., Oct. 25.—(Special.)—Dr Ben Bruner, of Hart county, Republican candidate for Congress from the Fourth district, and D H Smith, his opponent, engaged in joint debates at Andyville on October 20 and at Gaston on October 21.

Both are brilliant orators and the debates were very stirring.

Dr. Bruner riddled the argument made by Mr. Smith as easily and completely as he did that of the Hon South Trimble at Brandenburg on October 15. It seemed to be Mr Trimble's aim to discuss negro domination and negro equality—those old Democratic standbys—and to viciously abuse President Roosevelt. Doubtless Mr. Smith had ascertained that Mr Trimble's speech had not been a success in the way of vote getting, for he preferred to discuss the tariff at great length and carefully avoided the negro question.

Mr. Smith came to Brandenburg Friday night to speak, as per appointment, but failed to do so as the weather prevented his having an audience.

Smith At McDaniels.

Hardinsburg, Ky., Oct. 25.—(Special.)—Hon D H Smith, of Hodgenville, candidate for re-election as congressman from this district, was in town Monday. He was on his way to McDaniels, where he speaks today.

BRYAN AND SHAW.

Secretary Shaw will speak in Louisville on November 1, in interests of the Republican party. Mr. Shaw and Senator Fairbanks will spend one hour in Louisville tomorrow.

MINISTERS' MEETING.

CORRECTION.

EXCITING GAME.

An exciting game of baseball was one played between Troy, Ind., and Tobinsport, Ind., Sunday afternoon, the score being 5 to 4 in favor of the team from the latter place.

BEAT NEGRO WOMAN.

Henry Vale ntine, colored, was fined $10 and costs in police court Monday morning for beating Mary Richardson, a negro woman.

ADDITIONAL EDITORIAL.

The great onslaught of the Japs against the Russians with shot and shell and hot cannon balls is not more fierce and destructive than the powerful volley of hot words, burning with truth of history, hurled into the teeth of the Hon D H Smith by his opponent, Dr. Bruner, in their joint debates last week in Meade county. We really felt for Dave, who squirmed like an eel, made wry faces and felt that he was getting the hot end of the debate. Dave has been having his own way in this district for the past ten years, but in Dr. Bruner he has more than a match. The debates were along high lines, respectful and courteous and instructive to the voters.

Breckenridge county and Breckenridge county tobacco have received world-wide advertisement in the bronze medals just awarded to the B F Beard Tobacco Co. of Hardinsburg, and P Sheeran Bros & Co. of Kirk. All honor to these enterprising firms!

The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of

Good Health to the Children

Children especially are fond of dainties, and the housekeeper must look carefully to their food.

As good cake can be made only with good eggs, so also a cake that is healthful as well as dainty must be raised with a pure and perfect baking powder.

Royal Baking Powder is indispensable in the preparation of the highest quality of food. It imparts that peculiar lightness, sweetness and flavor noticed in the finest cake, biscuit, doughnuts, crusts, etc., and what is more important, renders the food wholesome and agreeable to young and old.

PICKED UP.

We overheard a man make this remark on the train the other night just after he left Irvington: "I have travelled over nearly all the roads in the country, from Maine to California, and I never run up on a better lunch counter than that man had in there. It is such clean and nice home cooking. Chicken cooked just like my mother used to cook it." No other people in the country put up so nice a lunch as do Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Lyons.

Henry C. Lake has put up a blacksmith shop at Rockvale. Reuben Wright, of Fordsville, is the smith.

Dr. Rodgers, of Askins, says: "Everything for Roosevelt down here."

Grand Lodge delegates: W. M. Powers, Pelville; Charlie Moorman, Cloverport; J. G. Blackford, Lewisport; Jake Meserve and son, Ernest, Hawesville; J. N. Baker, Floral; Ben Hardin, Ensor; A. C. Heron, Bewleyville.

John G. Truman, of Colorado, is visiting his old home in Fordsville. Mr. Truman went to Colorado 22 years ago and this is his first visit home.

M. M. Jarboe and Mrs. Robt. Spencer, of McDaniels, were en route to Louisville Thursday.

Rev. S. Bramlette, of Mineral, Kan., is visiting his brother, Mr. J. K. Bramlette, at Irvington. Mr. Bramlette is seventy-five years old but he don't look to be over fifty. He is hale and hearty and as lively as a cricket. He moved away from here twenty-five years ago and when a boy. He used to go to Hardin's mill with his turn of corn and to old man Phil Lightfoot's tannery, near Hardinsburg, to get leather to make his shoes.

He says he went to school with Judge Milton Board. He attributes his long years and good health to steady habits and hard work. "I have never been an idle man and am a hard worker when at home."

Joe Green Anderson is a prosperous farmer of Meade county. He's got no kick coming. Times are good with him, he says, and he don't want any change. He says: "Seventy pigs came to my house in five days, first day of June to 5th. They will weigh now 50 to 100 pounds. I am feeding 66 hogs, have five Hereford heifers, a Hereford bull that will weigh 2,100 pounds and the prettiest animal you ever saw. I also have eight acres of winter oats and 15 acres of rye a foot high and live at home with the best wife you ever saw." Mr. Anderson is a gold-bug Democrat and will vote for Roosevelt, simply for the reason, he says, that he don't want any change in the administration. It's good enough for him.

Pierce Hardaway sold to Taylor Dowell last week a pair of 5-year-old mules 16 hands high for $300. He raised them on his farm near Bewleyville. Pierce is a breeder of fine Duroc Jersey hogs and says he has demand for all he can raise, at good prices.

The Hon. Gus Richardson says he got the heifer cows and they are fine ones, too. "The railroad killed one of them and she was worth $100 of any man's money. You just say that that man Lackey was the first and only man that ever said a word to me about those heifers. He mentioned the fact that they were due me and that the commissioners ought to make me a present of them. It is due you, he said, for the good work you have done in helping to secure that appropriation." I paid no attention to the matter, he said, and thought no more about it, until I got home and found that the heifers had been sent. But it was a mistake about the freight being prepaid. I paid that myself. $19 was the amount. Gus don't think as much of Lackey as he once did.

REMAINS SHIPPED.

The remains of an infant child of Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Vines, formerly of this city, were removed from the city cemetery yesterday and shipped to Jefferson City, Tenn. Rev and Mrs Vines resides at Knoxville, Tenn, where Rev Vines is pastor of a Baptist church.

Mr. P. R. Payne and Miss Irene Moorman, prominent young people, were married Tuesday at the Baptist church at Harned.

Mr Orville Frank, of near Hardinsburg, and Miss Effie Pate, of Mattingly, were married at the bride's home Thursday.

The condition of M Hamman, who has been seriously ill for several weeks as the result of a stroke of paralysis, is practically unchanged.

AT BRANDENBURG.

Governor J C W Beckham will speak at Brandenburg on November 1, in the interest of Parker and Davis.

No Place For the Cow.

A young woman of great, perhaps too great, sensibility begged to be excused from visiting an aunt who lived in an old fashioned house where pictures of a certain period were in evidence. "There is an engraving of a blacksmith's shop in the dining room," said she hysterically. "You can't expect me to eat my dinner there. I smell the hooofs."

A similar criticism came from one who suffered not from overrefinement, but from something quite different. She was a woman of recently acquired wealth who, says the New York Tribune, went into an art gallery and asked for a painting of a certain size.

"I have just what you want," said the dealer.

He showed her a beautiful animal painting, but she looked at it for a few minutes and then shook her head. "It won't do," she said. "I want this picture for my drawing room."

"But it's a beautiful thing," ventured the dealer.

"Not for a drawing room," announced the woman conclusively. "You couldn't have a cow in a drawing room!"
